

Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act

The Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act (EEOICPA or Act) was established in July 2001. Part B of the Act is administered by the U.S. Department of Labor's (DOL) Office of Workers' Compensation Programs. A section of the Act provides compensation to certain beneficiaries of Section 5 of the Radiation Exposure Compensation Act (RECA).

Uranium miners, millers and ore transporters (or their eligible survivors) who worked in Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Wyoming and Utah, who have been awarded compensation under Section 5 of RECA, may be eligible to receive an additional payment of $50,000 and medical expenses of the covered illness.
